

Cycling Safari with Daniela Ryf

Support a heartfelt project

Doing good in Kenya

Summary Cycling Safari

2.-9. March 2025

This trip promises a unique adventure with Daniela Ryf. The first part of the trip centre's around the projects Daniela and her foundation so dearly support. The journey continues into the Laikipia area in central Kenya. For an exclusive cycling safari trip. The guided rides, promise breathtaking views and animal sightings. On this unique trip, you will want for nothing.

Visiting the projects

Blessed to Transform

The school project, run by Gladys Njeri, supports 700+ underprivileged children and adolescents. She provides the children with daily meals, clothing, hygiene products, gives them a purpose and guidance.

Paula Mercy Foundation

Founded by Paula Mwangi. The foundation cares for 30 neglected children, providing them with food, education and a safe home.

Cycling Safari

In the Laikipia area in central Kenya, you may share Daniela's passion for cycling. The four day private cycling safari promises breathtaking views and animal sighting. After the guided rides between 30-50km, we relax, dine and sleep in gorgeous makeshift camps in the wild.

To indulge into this unique adventure, you will want for nothing.

What's included:

- Accommodations
- All meals
- Scheduled charter flights
- Private transfers
- Scheduled excursions
- Scheduled private game viewings

What's not included:

- Flights to and from Kenya
- Premium brand drinks
- Travel Insurance